WHOOOPS – I DID IT AGAIN

After the 3rd quarter 2008 Newsletter was released, I received an email from Royce Glausier of Pendergrass, Georgia pointing out a misprint. We honored Royce for attaining 85 years of age and becoming one of our Honorary Members. Royce stated that he was 20 years younger than that and asked for a correction. In reviewing this matter, I found that I had picked out the wrong person and that the person who will be reaching 85 years of age but not until the 3rd qtr 2009 was on the next line of our roster – Richard E. Gleim of Lehi, Utah.

So Royce, I sincerely apologize for this error and realize that it is hard enough getting older without somebody adding 20 years to ones age! To Richard Gleim – your name will appear in the 3rd qtr 2009 issue's list of new Honorary Members.
